

UCSD LINGUISTICS LANGUAGE PROGRAM

Welcome!

Welcome to the Linguistics Language Program, a unit of the Department of Linguistics at UCSD. We offer basic instruction in American Sign Language, Arabic, French, German, Italian, Portuguese, and Spanish, in six heritage languages (Arabic, Filipino, Korean, Persian, and Vietnamese), and in over 60 other languages in our independent study program

What you can expect from us

- A rich language-learning environment: Learning a language requires lots of meaningful input and interaction. Our courses are designed to give you exactly that, during both in-class and out-of-class activities.
- An enjoyable and supportive classroom atmosphere: Learning a language should be fun, and you will find our classes to be a pleasure to attend.
- A committed and dedicated staff: We have one main goal: giving you the most effective language-learning experience possible. Your success is our success, and we do everything possible to make sure you finish your course sequence with a practical ability in the language that you will be able to use for the rest of your life.

What we expect from you

- Dedication: We give you the best language-learning environment possible and the means to make use of that environment. The rest is up to you. The more time you put in, the more you will learn.
- Enthusiasm: Many of our classes are small and personal, and you will get to know your instructors and classmates well. You owe it to them to show up ready and eager to participate.
- Honesty: We take academic integrity very seriously. Please read our policy below and make sure you understand it.

Academic Integrity

All students are expected to do their own work. The following acts constitute academic dishonesty and will result in any or all of the following sanctions: a grade of F, expulsion from the course, and/or disciplinary measures by the Dean of Students of the student's college.

Academic dishonesty includes but is not limited to:

1. During a written or computerized exam/quiz, using books, notes or on-line resources, copying from another student or receiving unauthorized help.
2. Turning in a written composition that has been copied from a book or some other printed source, from the Internet or that has been written in whole or in part by someone other than the student.

Moreover, students are expected to show proper respect for instructors and fellow students in class discussions and compositions. Improper and indecent language use will not be tolerated. See also the appropriate section of the UCSD General Catalog entitled "UCSD Policy on Integrity of Scholarship."

Course goals

The Conversation and Analysis sections are two halves of one course and need to be taken together. Both are designed to immerse you in the language and give you a practical ability as quickly as possible. The two halves are together worth 5 units, so you should expect a heavier workload than a typical 4-unit class.

- Conversation (MWF) is a smaller class, with special attention to vocabulary development and cultural knowledge.
- Analysis (TuTh) is a larger class, with special attention to listening, reading, and learning how to analyze the language and the culture.

Attendance

As a human, you are built to learn language(s), but you need lots of exposure and interaction with the language in order to learn. Your course grade is determined by several categories (tests, homework, etc.) that are listed in the “Grading” section below. Attendance is not one of these categories. If you attend a reasonable number of class meetings, any absences will have no effect on your course grade.

You may miss up to one week of class with no questions asked. Beyond that, your final grade will be reduced by 2 percentage points for each absence, as summarized here:

Conversation
of absences	Effect on grade (in percentage points)
4	-2
5	-4
6	-6
7	-8
8	-10
-2 for each additional absence

Analysis
of absences	Effect on grade (in percentage points)
3	-2
4	-4
5	-6
6	-8
7	-10
-2 for each additional absence

Why do we care about your attendance? Because everyday exposure and live interaction with your instructor and classmates are necessary for attaining a practical ability in the language, and that is one of the main goals of the course.

You are allowed up to one week of absences for illness, outside activities, etc. to use at your discretion; we do not need documentation for those absences. In unusual circumstances (e.g., hospitalization), please contact your instructor for advice. An absence cannot be made up. If you are absent, however, and miss a quiz, exam, or other assignment, contact your instructor immediately. Any approved make-up must be completed within one week.

You are required to complete a daily symptom screening every day before coming to class (information at: <https://returntolearn.ucsd.edu/return-to-campus/testing-and-screening/student-screening-and-testing/index.html>). If the daily symptom screener does not clear you to attend class (it gives you a “red thumb”), notify your instructor immediately. Days that you miss because of red thumb will NOT count as absences in the above chart.

Because of rapidly changing circumstances, your class may need to meet by Zoom at some point. The Zoom link for your class is listed on the Canvas site. Adjust your settings in Canvas so that you receive notifications immediately in case of any change. Attendance is expected regardless of whether the class is in-person or on Zoom.

Participation

Being in class is important, but what you do in class is also important. You will learn more language if you are actively engaged and interacting. For this reason, your instructor will be giving you a participation grade periodically to encourage you to:

- arrive to class prepared, with any assigned activities completed and any needed materials at hand.
- use the target language exclusively.
- be attentive and interested in what your fellow students and your instructor have to say.
- participate in class activities willingly, enthusiastically and voluntarily, with the goal of creating a lively and engaging learning environment for everyone in class.

The extent to which you do these things will determine your participation grade for that period:

A	=	You always do the above, in every class and for the entire period.
B	=	You mostly do the above.
C	=	You sometimes do the above.
D	=	You usually do not do the above.

Enrollment and Placement

If you have had any previous experience in the language you intend to study in our program, (such as previous course work in high school or college, exposure at home, or residence or study abroad), you are required to:

ASL	Consult Peggy Lott, Academic Coordinator for ASL (plott@ling.ucsd.edu)
Arabic	Consult instructor
Portuguese	Consult instructor
All other languages	Take Language Placement Exam at https://lang.ucsd.edu/llp

If you have any questions about placement, please see the staff in the Language Office, AP&M 3016.

A student who fails one half of the course must retake that half before continuing on to the next level of the sequence. In order to enroll in the next level, you must have completed the Conversation component of the previous level with a grade of "D" or better and the Analysis component of the previous level with a grade of "D" or better. A student who receives a Conversation grade of "D" or better but who receives a "D" in Analysis may do one of two things: Either 1) retake Analysis before going on to the next level, or 2) go on to the next level. However, a student may not complete the next level and subsequently retake a "D" grade. (A student who receives a "P" grade in the Conversation component and "NP" in the Analysis component may not continue to the next level.)

Materials

- LIFR1D/1DX French Conversation & Analysis Reader (to be purchased at the UCSD bookstore)
- Online Website: www.laits.utexas.edu/tex
- Anna Sam, Les tribulations d'une caissière (2008)

You may purchase You Reader at the bookstore. A reader eBook option will also be proposed. In ordinary circumstances, we do not allow electronic devices in class since no distraction allows for better learning progression. In case that your class may need to meet by Zoom at some point, we ask you to buy the loose-leaf version since (a) it will be more practical for you to use your computer screen only to interact with your classmates and professors, and (b) research in cognitive psychology consistently demonstrates that students learn better by taking handwritten notes, which the loose-leaf version of the textbook is made for.

Students with special accommodations need to present their OSD letter to their instructor and the Academic Coordinator (Vinciane Van Moer, vvanmoer@ucsd.edu). Students who require additional time or separate testing for their tests (quizzes, midterms or finals) should arrange this with their instructor early in the quarter to avoid scheduling conflicts.

Your grades will be posted on the class Canvas site: <http://canvas.ucsd.edu>

Class rules

Please show respect for your instructors and your fellow students by adhering to a few simple rules. Please, there will be no eating, no use of cell phones. Please arrive to class on time and use French only. If you are absent, check for the work and homework missed by asking another student.

IMPORTANT: When taking the in-class exam you may not use books or notes or consult with anyone else. No outside resources, including Internet resources, are allowed.

- Homework
www.laits.utexas.edu/tex for explanations and practice of grammatical points. In order to help you practice the language, you will have to complete the assigned online exercises on www.laits.utexas.edu/tex. Make sure you work on the activities related to the topics covered in class every week (and every day if possible) so that you will better assimilate the concepts worked on in class and have plenty of time to complete your homework. Keep in mind the deadlines so that you do not lose any points. Please remember that the same standards of academic integrity hold for both tests and homework.
- You will use www.laits.utexas.edu/tex in this part of the course:
 1. to do your homework (grammatical exercises) for your Analysis course. These exercises will be graded.
 2. to practice the language. You are encouraged to work on more exercises than the ones assigned to further your language practice. You will not receive extra credit for doing them.
- Reading
The purpose of the assignments is to increase your ability to read narration in French without translating to English, and to participate in class discussion. A quiz will be given for selected readings.
- Midterm
Two midterms will be given during the quarter. They will be composed of various exercises (e.g., short listening passages, readings, fill in the blank exercises, short answer, etc.) to evaluate your ability in French.
- Final exam
A 3-hour comprehensive exam will be given during finals week. It will use various exercises (e.g., short listening passages, readings, fill in the blank exercises, short answer, etc.) to evaluate your ability in French.
