

New course - Fall 2021

LIHL118 Cantonese for Cantonese Speakers

Cantonese for Cantonese speakers is a heritage language course designed for students who speak and comprehend Cantonese within their family and community but wish to improve their reading and writing, their communicative and sociocultural competence and their analytic understanding of the language.

<https://llp.ucsd.edu/hlp/cantonese.html>

Fall 2021

Tues & Thurs 2:00-3:20pm

Instructor: Areana Chen

- Upper division course
- Any LIHL course will satisfy the language requirement for majors (Linguistics, International Studies) or colleges (ERC, Revelle)
- Approved for Asian American and Pacific Islander Studies Minor with petition
- Info: esadegholvad@ucsd.edu